PRIVACY STATEMENT

Only in this statement "we", "us" and "our" means Lloyd's and Winsure Underwriting Pty Ltd as its agent. We are bound by the obligations of the Privacy Act 1988 as amended by the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012. This sets out basic standards relating to the collection, use, storage and disclosure of personal information. Our Privacy Policy, available at www.winsure.com.au or by calling us, sets out how:

- ▼ we protect your personal information;
- ▼ you may access your personal information;
- ▼ you may correct your personal information held by us;

▼ you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Principles or Registered Privacy Code and how we will deal with such a complaint.

We need to collect, use and disclose your personal information in order to consider your application for insurance and to provide the cover you have chosen, administer the insurance and assess any claim. You can choose not to provide us with some of the details or all of your personal information, but this may affect our ability to provide the cover, administer the insurance or assess a claim. We may disclose your personal information to third parties who assist us in providing the above services. These parties (which include our related entities, distributors, agents, insurers - including reinsurers - and service providers) will only use the personal information for the purposes we provided it to them for (unless otherwise required by law). It is likely that the information will be disclosed overseas. Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible and practicable to do so. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly (e.g. from your representatives or co-insured's). If you provide information for another person you represent to us that:

▼ you have the authority from them to do so and it is as if they provided it to us;

▼ you have made them aware that you will or may provide their personal information to us, the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties we disclose it to will use it for, and how they can access it.

If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information. You are entitled to access your information if you wish and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by us by contacting Winsure.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE:

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurers decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer
- That is of common knowledge
- That your insurer knows or in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know
- As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

NON-DISCLOSURE:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim, refuse to pay a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

DECLARATION: I/We do hereby warrant that the answers given above are to the best of my/our knowledge true and correct and I/We have not withheld any information likely to affect acceptance of the Proposal: and I/We agree that this Proposal and Declaration shall be the basis of the Contract between the Insurer and the Insured. I have read the notes concerning my duty of disclosure on the reverse of this proposal/member application form, and agree that if I have sought the assistance of any person in the completion of this form wholly or in part, such person does so as my agent and not that of the company.
